Broadcast Sports Inc. (the “applicant”), is a video production company which provides audio and video for broadcast, satellite broadcast and cablecast of sporting and other events. Applicant holds certain LTTS, BAS and Private Wireless licenses for this purpose. However, available channels for voice audio to coordinate production activities are extremely limited on the return.

The applicant has been engaged to provide voice audio services for the upcoming Preakness horse racing event at the Pimlico Track in Baltimore, Maryland from May 13-17, 2008. As the sole provider of communications to NBC for televised coverage of this event, it is necessary to use 90 mobile handheld units in order to sufficiently cover the event. Applicant hereby request, an application for Special Temporary Authority (“STA”) to utilize 90 mobile handheld units on channel 15 (476-482) on a short-term, temporary basis.

Due to the proposed low power operation by applicant, no interference is anticipated. Should any interference be reported, applicant will cease use of any portion of the requested bands immediately, unless and until remedied.

Applicants delay in submitting the STA request is due an administrative oversight however, the application was filed as soon as the oversight was discovered. It is with this that applicant request expedited review and the STA granted.
