

Broadstorm Telecommunications, Inc. is undertaking a development program for high capacity 4th Generation Broadband Wireless. This will lead to greatly improved personal communications services for voice, data, and video traffic.

Orthogonal Frequency Division Multiple Access (OFDM) with adaptive coded Quadrature Amplitude Modulation (QAM) will be employed to provide power efficient, spectrally efficient, robust operation in the presence of noise and frequency selective fading.