

Exhibit No. 4

(Reference: Question 7-Experimentation Description)

The system that would be operated under this requested license will collect wind and virtual temperature profiles at Montezuma Slough Salinity Control Structure in Suisun City, CA. The measurement program, sponsored by the California Air Resources Board, will be used to assess transport of pollutants to and from the San Francisco Bay area and for making smoke management decisions.