

Exhibit 2

Explanation of Emissions

Due to the many makes and models of VHF Comm radios involved, and as new models are continually being introduced, it is not feasible to list every possible frequency tolerance and specific modulating signal except as follows:

All of the radios we will be testing are certified by the FCC for 25 kHz operations, and all 8.33 capable radios meet the European specifications for 8.33 operation.