

The purpose of obtaining this experimental license is to experiment with the lower frequencies on antenna design, vlf/lf propagation, weak signal processing, and data transmission. This experimental license is to also set up a "LOWFER" transmitter for amateur radio use within the bandwidths and emissions specified.