

From: Christopher Imlay

To: Anthony Serafini

Date: September 27, 2012

Subject:

---

Message:

Per the NTIA inquiry, the number of separate channels that will be needed in the band 148-174 MHz is 33. These are to be used for voice communications through portable hand-held transceivers at low power by the race teams for pit crew, garage and operational communications at ground level.