

Exhibit 1

This Modification Application is being filed to advise the Commission that the contract previously associated with the WI2XGD is no longer active, and the license will support Internal Research and Development (IR&D) activities moving forward.

Accordingly, because the license will no longer support contract activity, it is requested that Special Condition 6 be deleted and the Station Class be changed from “XC” to a new appropriate Station Class.