

Supporting Information

This event will require 3 frequencies in the 2200 – 2290 MHz band to support three fixed camera systems on the Marathon course. This event will also use 3 frequencies in the 3200 – 3600 MHz band to support mobile operations. Selection of the whole spectrum allows movement of the frequencies to avoid interference both to and from other users of this spectrum.