

The transmit spectrum must conform to the spectral mask (relative to peak spectral density) shown in Figure 13. The dashed curve represents un-filtered cosine-squared pulse shape of Figure 10. This waveform must be filtered such that its spectrum lies entirely below the mask specified by the gray area.

