

The reason for this modification is the addition of new radios to our testing network. There are no other changes other than the frequencies.