General Atomics Aeronautical Systems, Inc. (GA-ASI) is in the business of manufacturing and flight testing Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAVs) that have a broad range of scientific and military applications for the U.S. Government. GA-ASI requests these frequencies to support ongoing projects that will be conducted at the request of the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (BICE) under the U. S. Department of Homeland Security. Currently GA-ASI is in possession of a Special Temporary Authorization (File 0311-EX-ST-2003) that will expire on February 25, 2004. The permanent license currently requested is necessary to support a future anticipated contract with BICE.
