

General Dynamics SATCOM Technologies hereby requests an experimental license, this experimental license will be utilized for demonstration and experimentation utilizing radio waves for technical operation data to various clients at various locations throughout the United States and its territories. This terminal will be used on an occasional basis to demonstrate the system capabilities to various clients or potential clients.