Subject: Request for Info - File #0199-EX-PL-2010

Message:

This application relates to a previously issued license for an experimental radar system located on Kodiak Island, Alaska. The call sign listed on the license was WA2XPM. The radar is used for study of the ionosphere and upper atmosphere. A government official who can vouch for the project is Dr. Robert Robinson at the National Science Foundation, Phone: 703-292-8529, email: rmrobins@nsf.gov
