

Reid

File Number: 0466-EX-PL-2014

Applicant proposes to investigate the potential for a statewide communications network in the potential medium frequency Amateur Radio band at 472-479 KHz.

Output power, antenna and operating mode effectiveness will be tested in a typical station configuration.

Examination of the FCC license data base for this band indicates that no there will be no anticipated impact on any current users