

Good Technology
September 6, 2001

Good Technology would like to request confidentiality with the FCC. Good Technology feels that maintaining secrecy regarding product feature sets and product schedules is highly important to the success of the company.