

Grid Net develops advanced telecommunications and network management technology and products for the smart grid. The 4G smart meter and SCADA routers that Grid Net designs and develops use the 2.3 GHz and 2.5 GHz spectrum. Grid Net has access to 2.5 GHz spectrum in its San Francisco, Ca development facilities, and requires access to 2.3 GHz spectrum for over-the-air product testing and performance validation.