

Harris Malabar Florida facility is located at 2800 Jordan Blvd. Note the cell tower across the street and the high voltage lines on the other side of the facility. This testing will be performed between the parking lot and the main building. The antenna will be supported as shown below at a height below the building roof.

This is the antenna and supporting lift truck to be used, however the facility in the background is not the Malabar location.

