

LIMITED FCC POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT

HRL Laboratories LLC ("HRL" or "Grantor"), a Delaware limited liability company and residing at 3011 Malibu Canyon Rd, Malibu, CA 90265, hereby appoints Mayer Brown LLP ("Grantee"), having an office 1999 K Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20006 and 333 S. Grand Ave 47th Floor Los Angeles, CA 90071, as true and lawful agent and attorney in the name, place, and stead of Grantor, from this date and in no other name, to represent and appear on behalf of Grantor and its designated representatives before the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") in connection with the transfer of ownership of HRL to International Business Machines Corporation ("IBM"), including the making and filing of any necessary and requisite documentation, giving to Grantee limited power and authority to do anything whatever requisite and necessary to be done in the presence of FCC as fully as said Grantor could do if present and acting.

Notwithstanding anything specifically provided herein, this power of attorney does not, and is not intended to, and will not be construed to, grant any authority to the Grantee beyond the powers contained herein.

Grantor is currently owned jointly by The Boeing Company ("Boeing"), a Delaware corporation, and General Motors Holdings LLC ("GM"), a Delaware limited liability company. On July 21, 2026, IBM, HRL, Boeing, and GM entered into an Equity Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which IBM has agreed to acquire HRL. Upon the closing of such transaction, Grantor will operate under the ownership and control of IBM. This Power of Attorney is effective on 18 August 2026 and shall remain in full force and effect until the date of closing of the transaction.
