

Justification for Non-Fee Application

The applicant for this special temporary authority is exempt from paying FCC filing fees. The applicant is the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois, which is a public university. As a result, no fee is required with the submission of this application.