

I would like to request that the FCC considers the University of Illinois as a “fee exempt” for this application (Using radar guns for speed studies) . We are a state university and doing this research for another public organization (Illinois Department of Transportation).