

Location Description

The units will be tested in various locations in Texas. Some locations are at mean sea level. Others, such as Lubbock, are 1000m above mean sea level.

Testing will be in rural areas of Texas. Previous testing locations: Sealy, TX, Sam Houston National Forest and Cedar Creek Reservoir. The units will be 10 km or greater from the nearest airport.