

IntegriNautics Corporation
Modification of license WA2XYP
Exhibit to Application 0034-EX-ML-2004

Explanation of Application

This application requests a change to the license WA2XYP. IntegriNautics, due to company growth, needs to move its headquarters to a new building in Menlo Park. The application to modify this license reflects only a change in the antenna location moving from existing headquarters to a new building less than one mile away. All other aspects of this license will remain the same.
