

Exhibit 1

The application is for a control station with transmitting antennas currently located five feet above roof level of a modern office building in an urban location, which meets none of the criteria of section 1.1307 triggering the requirement for an Environmental Assessment.