

The purpose of this experimental license is to determine if 2 to 30 MHz mobile to base or an interconnected 30 to 470 MHz system with linked repeaters on VHF and mobile remotes for UHF hand held to VHF mobile radios provide the best coverage in remote areas where cellular phones and satellite phones are not usable in steep canyons. The UHF General Mobile Radio Service is not adequate to provide emergency communications and daily administrative communications in this diverse terrain in north eastern Utah.