

From: Kenneth W. Hofbauer, PhD

To: Behnam Ghaffari

Date: September 25, 2009

Subject: FCC File No. 0237-EX-PL-2009

---

Message:

The wide range of spectrum, 152.975 ? 174 MHz allows us to verify the full capability of the radio. The radio's operating frequency is user configurable, providing 1760 channels spaced 12.5KHz apart. This provides the maximum flexibility to potential users. During production and test of these radios we will need to be able to select sample channels throughout the full operating spectrum of the radio.