To Whom It May Concern:

LG InfoComm USA, is the US based subsidiary of a Korean infrastructure manufacturer, LG Electronics Inc.

We would like to request for a Special Temporary Authorization to use certain channel bandwidth for the demonstration of LG's latest EV-DO (Data Only) equipment's wireless data service capabilities, including video streaming and the Internet Surfing, during the CTIA Wireless 2002 exhibition show in Orlando, Florida.

Following are some relevant facts and information you may need.

- *Name of the show: CTIA Wireless 2002
- *Location of the show: Orange County Convention Center
9800 International Drive
Orlando FL 32819-8199
- *Dates of bandwidth use: From March 15th to March 21st
 - *The actual Show itself is from March 18th to 20th
 - *Frequency: Tx (1840 Mhz ~ 1850 Mhz)
Rx (1750 Mhz ~ 1760 Mhz)
 - *Power: 5 Watts
 - *Emission Designator: 1M25F9D

We would like to ask FCC to grant LG InfoComm USA the use of the above frequency during the CTIA Wireless 2002 show for our system demonstration.
