

Testing Summary

LiveTV is installing a WIFI system on the United Airlines aircraft that will enable the passengers to communicate through the ViaSat satellite system to the internet. The FAA requires LiveTV to perform testing of essential aircraft equipment for immunity to WIFI signals produced by Personal Electronic Devices (PEDs). This testing is required with signal levels is in accordance with RTCA DO-294. This testing will take place at George Bush International Airport in Houston Texas at the United Airlines Maintenance Ramp.