

Exhibit I

We are requesting this extension of the Experimental Authorization to permit continued operations on the additional frequencies, over the frequencies originally granted for the regular authorization WD2XIV. These additional frequencies and the coverage area are vital to the continued testing and development of equipment for the F-16 aircraft being developed and built for shipment to the United Arab Emirates under contract through the DoD and the United States State Department.