

Exhibit I

AFTRCC coordination has been requested and will be following shortly. This system is for Wind Correction Guidance systems being developed for munitions systems. This is an on going program and will be tested at all previously assigned/requested locations. There are no changes to the technical parameters previously requested and authorized.