

Conversion to Regular Authorization

Upon recent short term demonstrations and tests the program has been requested to continue operations for potential production and training on this technology and equipment for deployment with the various services requiring this equipment as needed.