

Exhibit 1
Directional Antenna Information

The antenna is a planar array which is tilted back 9 degrees in the vertical and rotates 360 degrees in the horizontal.

The license is for the testing of a system which is a program under the US Army to replace the aging TPQ-36. It is a Counter Fire Target Acquisition and Tracking radar which is needed as soon as possible for national security and homeland defense.