

Program Description

JTRS Program

This is a corporate request to receive the spectrum needed to perform testing in support of early integration efforts and government-sponsored demonstrations and exercises that, although are outside the requirements of the contract, directly support the goals and priorities of the program office.