

Exhibit A
Expedited Processing Request

Expedited treatment is being requested for this STA to allow Lockheed Martin to demonstrate equipment to Air Forces Special Operations Command and other elements at Robins AFB as part of the Joint Lightning Exercise. The equipment being developed will provide war fighters in the field high-bandwidth communications regardless of location. This technology also has potential to be used in support of first responders in homeland security applications and disaster-response events in the US.