

Exhibit C

Program Description:

Line of sight transmission of intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance imagery data from an airborne platform to a ground control station. Essential for passing imagery and other reconnaissance data from an airborne platform to a ground control station.