

Expedited Application Request

Lockheed Martin requests expedited treatment of this application. The application is requested to support environmental and qualification testing of a Non-Line Of Sight (NLOS) Container Launch Unit (CLU). This work is being done under a US government contract with the Army. The Army expects to deploy this equipment to US war-fighter in the theater of operation in the near term.