

Program Description

Testing under this authorization is for integration and test of ground radio systems used for training personnel. The radio systems provide status and location of trainees participating in the exercise. This testing is required before the equipment is shipped overseas.