

We are applying for a 5 year experimental license to ensure the availability of HF radar data for the duration of this and other long term studies in the Santa Barbara Channel. This project is currently funded through 2004, with multiple proposals in review to extend the project through 2008.