

Exhibit A

By this application, Massachusetts Institute of Technology ("MIT") seeks to modify the license for Experimental Radio Station WA2XPG, currently authorized under File No. 6285-EX-ML-1998. Specifically, MIT is proposing to relocate the station back to its original location, as previously authorized under File No. 5862-EX-PL-1997. The proposed site is located 0.33 kilometers from the current site. All other parameters of Station WA2XPG will remain unchanged.
