

The requested renewal is necessary to perform research under grants from the National Science Foundation (ATM-0242166,0313747) and pending research with the USDA Forest Service to the University of Massachusetts Amherst. These grants support use of mobile Doppler radar for research of tornadoes, severe storms, and smoke.