

The requested license is necessary to perform research under National Science Foundation cooperative agreement EEC-0313747 to the University of Massachusetts Amherst and for pending research projects with NSF. This supports research of tornadoes, severe storms, and clear-air winds using mobile Doppler radar. The cognizant program director is Dr. Stephan P. Nelson (snelson@nsf.gov).