

From: Brian Plasky

To: Behnam Ghaffari

Date: April 28, 2014

Subject: FCC File No. 0309-EX-PL-2014

---

Message:

1. Due to the Remote locations of this test, we foresee limited impact with these frequencies. In the past we have tested in NAWS China Lake Base with their spectrum authority approval and not encountered any complaints or issues with this interference.
2. Directionality: With our approach to the collecting data and transmitting the signal we point downward. Our transmission waveform is an interrupted FMCW chirp that cycles on and off very rapidly at a very low power