

Initial testing was conducted using Call sign WG2XDC. This application is intended to effectively serve as a renewal of this previously granted license with the removal of the Mclean station location. The only difference in the application (besides the update of contact information) is the removal of the Mclean station location.