

In the past, as a state government organization, we have not had to pay any fees for an experimental FCC license.