

Question 7: Statement of Application Classification

The State of New Mexico Office of the State Engineer will install remote transmitters operation on a a frequency approved by NOAA/ NESDIS that measure real-time water stage using Sutron Corporation's SatLink2 G312-1 transmitter and that transmits to NOAA's Geostationary Operational Environmental Satellites (GOES) to monitor diversions from rivers to ensure that water is properly distributed.