

Statement as to why fee exempt

The Office of the State Engineer is an agency within the government of the State of New Mexico, administering the public waters of New Mexico. As such it is our belief that we are exempt from any fees associated with filing of this application.