

It is our understanding that as a government agency that we would be fee exempt. If this is the case, then the fee for the application would be waived.