

Request for Special Temporary Authority (“STA”)

Northrop Grumman Systems Corporation (NGSC) is developing and wishes to test a radar system that will demonstrate the ability to track Line-of-Sight (LOS) terrain obstructions, target detection and perimeter intrusion. This development and testing is to be done utilizing a slotted waveguide array radar. Northrop Grumman respectfully requests processing of this STA to permit commencement of testing on or about July 12, 2010.