

REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED ACTION

Northrop Grumman Systems Corporation respectfully requests expedited consideration of the attached application to operate an experimental radio station. The equipment described therein is being tested and demonstrated to Government representatives for possible deployment by U.S. military units in battlefield environments. Testing and demonstration of this equipment is scheduled to begin on August 9, 2010.