

Labels Required to Be on the Product

Per FCC Rule 2.803 the following label must be placed on the equipment:

This device has not been authorized as required by the rules of the Federal Communications Commission. This device is not, and may not be, offered for sale or lease, or sold or leased, until authorization is obtained.