

Response to item 12:

Parlier Unified School District is a public school district contained within Fresno County, California. The district supports and manages all activities within the Parlier School District boundaries, including the proposed activities described within this experimental application.